Hello,

The year is really kicking off now and the games are coming at a real pace. Our pitches in Coachford are being used for training almost every night of the week and games are played there every day of the weekend. The last month has seen the club improving the old dressing rooms and continuing to develop the grounds for our players.

All the new coaches are in place and we wish them all the best of luck for the busy playing season ahead. Our U21 footballers had a tremendous run in the league/ Championship this year and played some great Football to reach the semi final of the championship. Unfortunately they lost by a point to Eire Óg but they did themselves, their coaches and the parish proud.

The Camogie Club has come up with a novel fundraising initiative and we hope that all of you will get behind this and raise some much needed funds for the girls and in the process clean out your wardrobes!!!

See inside for more on these stories.

A lot of people had difficulty in naming all of the people in the photograph from last month's edition but many of you could recognize some of those in this image from 1969. The names are Back Row: Jimmy Goulding, Rev. Fr. McDermott, Noel O'Connell, Matt Scully, Michael Lucey, Danny Noonan, Ted McSweeney, Noel Coleman.

Front Row: Mick Noonan, Tadgh Lynch, Gus Murphy, Rev. Fr. O'Mahony, Murt Murphy, Ned Roche.

We have included another photograph in this edition from only a few years ago to get you thinking.

On behalf of our club we would like to wish all of you a very happy St. Patrick's Day

Beannachtaí na Féile Pádraig oraibh!

Denise O' Sullivan & Deirdre Twomey

Camogie News

Our U6 up to U14 girls commenced training since mid February. All girls who turn 6 & 7 in 2012 train indoors in Aghabullogue Hall, Saturday mornings from 10 until 11am. Girls who turn 8 & 9 in 2012, train indoors In Aghabullogue Hall, every Tuesday night from 6.30pm to 7.45pm. Girls from 10 to 14 age groups train outdoors Tuesday nights in Coachford from 6.00pm to 7.15pm. Any girls who have not joined us in the above age groups are more than welcome to come along.

AGHABULLOGUE CAMOGIE CLUB – CLOTHES AND FOOTWEAR COLLECTION:

We are organising a collection of clean and dry unwanted ladies', gents' and children's clothes and footwear. The first collection will be on Friday, 23 March, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., at the GAA Grounds, Coachford. It is the ideal time to clean out your wardrobe, and the Camogie Club would be delighted to take unwanted items from you! Please, ensure that clothes and shoes are separated. Further collections will take place in April. Please, contact any member of the Camogie Club if you need any further information. Your support for this venture would be very much appreciated. Thank you.

Aghabullogue Camogie Club entered the Muskerry Scór Dancing competition recently and they were very unlucky to be beaten in the final. These girls won their division in Coachford and did a great job of representing the Camogie Club! The team members were Julie Tarrant, Oonagh Tarrant, Julie Crowley, Sarah Byrne, Ellie O'Connell, Meadhbh Ring, Aoife Twomey & Caomhie O'Connell. They took part in the figure dancing and the set dancing in Coachford, and they also had a quiz team of Ellen Tarrant, Shane Tarrant & David Thompson who took part in the quiz in Coachford.

Under 21 Football

10/03/2011 Eire Óg 1-13 Aghabullogue 0-15

The Aghabullogue U21 Footballers were unfortunate to lose out to Eire Óg in the Mid Cork A Championship Semi Final on Saturday, 10th March. Aghabullogue started the stronger and had four points on the score board before Eire Óg recorded their first point of the game. The Aghabullogue scores came courtesy of John Corkery (0-02), Pat Walsh and Michael O'Sullivan. Aidan Barry Murphy, John Corkery, Pat Walsh and Evan O'Sullivan added a point each for Aghabullogue and with Eire Óg adding a further five points, at half time the scoreboard read 0-08 to 0-06 in favour of Aghabullogue.

Eire Óg emerged as a different team for the start of the second half and scored a total of 1-04 without reply. John Corkery and Michael O'Sullivan did then add a point each for the men in green and white but Eire Óg added another point to their tally. Aghabullogue then upped the ante and scored five points without reply, with points from John Corkery 0-03 and Michael O'Sullivan 0-02. This saw Aghabullogue one point ahead, however it was not to be for Aghabullogue as Eire Óg went on to score two further points, which saw them run out as winners by the narrowest of margins. The final score line read 1-13 to 0-15 in favour of Eire Óg.

Substitutes: James Lynch for Ian McSweeney and Peter O'Sullivan for Ciaran Barrett. Scorers: John Corkery 0-07, Michael O'Sullivan 0-04, Pat Walsh 0-02, Aidan Barry Murphy & Evan O'Sullivan 0-01 each.

The Photograph from 'down memory lane' this month is a relatively recent one but can you name all 23 of these players who captured the 2004 Mid Cork u12 football championship?. You won't have to look too far to find out many of those names!!!

Notice: A Circuit Training Class has started in Aghabullogue Hall every Monday night from 8pm to 9pm. It is suitable for all ages, both male and female and all fitness levels. Cost is €5 per class. Please contact Michael Buckley (087 3218844) for further details.
